

This is a very serious matter. To hand over the ownership of the public air waves to the concentrated self-interest of the few will wipe out all diversity of opinion. Even now the lack of real news is appalling. I am not willing to be force fed the ideas and commercials of people who have no regard for nor connection to my community. Thank you for your time. Larry Koch